Successful Communication in Stressful Moments – Communication strategies that build successful relationships.

Networking Now – For goal-oriented women prepared to use networking to realize their goals.

Workplace Culture – Building a better workplace culture. Creating a culture of trust.

About the Centre:

The Centre of Excellence is a place where women experience community and a sense of belonging as they fulfill their leadership potential. We provide leadership and community building blocks through, events, networking, mentorship, coaching, and skill building workshops. We are creating an environment where women of diverse backgrounds can share their experience and learn from one another while building their leadership skills.
