

MICROSKILLS WOMEN SERVICES

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY TRAINING FOR WOMEN (ITTW)

ARE YOU LOOKING TO UPGRADE YOUR SKILLS FOR EMPLOYMENT?

Our programs assist women to build skills, gain confidence, and explore careers and job opportunities in IT Industry

- ▶ Web Development Program (42 weeks) This advanced program for women with technical backgrounds will update and enhance leadership skills and equip women with the skills to develop and maintain websites. Start date: September 28, 2009 (Brampton location)

All programs include off-site work experience placements and offer women orientation to Business Fundamentals and Leadership training to enhance professionalism and prepare for progressively responsible roles within organizations.

Who can apply?

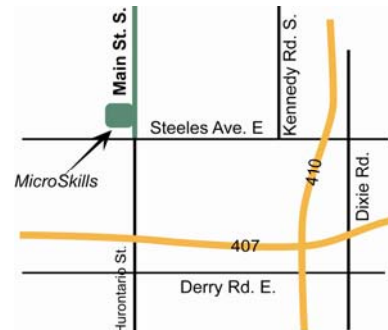

- Low income women
- Unemployed and immigrant women
- Women receiving Social Assistance Benefits (OW or ODSP)

To register for these free services or get more information:

Brampton Location

499 Main Street South,
Unit # 61, Brampton, ON
L6Y 1N7
Phone: (905) 453-5996

Contact: Shayline at ext. 2803 slyttle@microskills.ca or
Rana at ext. 2806 raulakh@microskills.ca

The ITTW programs are sponsored by the Government of Ontario

www.microskills.ca

A United Way
Member Agency