

SELF-EMPLOYMENT TRAINING FOR WOMEN (SET)

LEARN THE SKILLS YOU NEED TO START AND OPERATE A BUSINESS

For women with a viable business idea:

- ★ Learn how to evaluate, refine and develop your small business by preparing a written business plan, including marketing, operations and financials
- ★ Learn about the myths and realities of being self-employed in Canada
- ★ Discover techniques to help you balance business and family needs
- ★ Access our computers and internet for business research
- ★ Access our business support services, including group and individual business coaching
- ★ Participate in workshops and networking opportunities with other women entrepreneurs

Program Duration

The program offers 22 weeks of classroom training and 13 weeks of support during business start-up

Start date: June 16, 2014

Who can apply?

- ▣ Low income women
- ▣ Unemployed and immigrant women
- ▣ Women receiving Social Assistance Benefits (OW or ODSP)

To apply for this training attend an information session every Friday 10:30-11:30am at MicroSkills East location office. to get more information contact Claudia Manzo at 416 -247- 7181 ext 2343 or email at cmanzo@microskills.ca

Location

200 Consumers Road, 9th Floor
North York, ON M2J 4R4
Phone: 416-247-7181 x. 2343
Email: cmanzo@microskills.ca

Funded by:

